The Global Community for Academic Advising

1. Introduction. Academic advising (AA) is a programme or scheme that is widely used in educational systems to provide guidance and advice to students (Iatrellis et al., 2017). It has a significant influence on education systems, as it is defined as part of the processes of teaching and learning (Campbell and Nutt, 2008). AA is highly valued, and hence is commonly utilized in higher

Strong academic advising has been found to be a key contributor to student persistence (Center for Public Education, 2012), and many are expected to play an advising role, including academic, career, and faculty advisors; counselors; tutors; and student affairs staff. Yet there is little training on how to do so. Various advising strategies exist, each of which has its own proponents.
