Brothers Of The Night Gay

Directed by Patric Chiha. With Stefan, Yonko, Asen, Nikolay. Soft boys by day, kings by night. The film follows a group of young Bulgarian Roma who come to Vienna looking for freedom and a quick buck. They sell their bodies as if that's all they had. What comforts them, so far from home, is the feeling of being together. But the nights are long and unpredictable.

Brothers of the Night (2016) - IMDb

Brothers of the Night Brüder der Nacht. It's like watching an amateur version of Fassbinder's Querelle mixed in with a tedious cinéma-vérité fly-on-the-wall documentary...although everything feels scripted and [badly] rehearsed.. All these young men talk about is money, their families, money, their wives, money, their kids, money and screwing the 'gays' - for money.

Enter Patric Chiha's 'Brothers of the Night' – a docu-fiction hybrid that explores the realm of Buglarian Romani prostitutes in Vienna. While there are many documentaries about male prostitution (we gay men do seem to be fascinated with that topic...) already available, Patric's movie takes a very different approach in respect to honoring the mystery of the 'men of the night'.
