After finishing the book, a quick look at the author's bio indicates that M.J. Arlidge has worked in television for the past 15 years. Whilst there's nothing "script like" about EENY MEENY there is something visual about it. Uncomfortably so, because these are victims, and cops who remain with me, and I'm guessing will for quite sometime to come.

Review - EENY MEENY, M.J. Arlidge | AustCrimeFiction

EENY MEENY by M.J. Arlidge Some books are meant to be slowly and considerately savored, and some books are meant to be devoured whole. EENY MEENY falls into the latter category. M.J. Arlidge's detective novel pairs breakneck-speed plotting with short chapters and a straightforward plot to great effect.

Review: EENY MEENY by M.J. Arlidge — Crime by the Book

Quotes by M.J. Arlidge "There are countless moments in the average life when you have to decide whether to open yourself up or bury yourself deep. In love, at work, among your family, with friends, there are moments when you have to decide whether you are ready to reveal your true self." — M.J. Arlidge, Eeny Meeny

Eeny Meeny - M. J. Arlidge - Google Books

Would you try another book from M. J. Arlidge and/or the narrators? The plot develops at a good pace. Slowly adding information as it goes on. My preference is to get it going quicker and keep it going at a steady pace--so it was a bit slower than I like. And repetitive and then predictable in the nature of the violence.
