Having achieved her first #1 single when she featured as guest vocalist on Professor Green's "Read All About It," Sandé closes her debut album with a continuation of the song. She told Q magazine: "I wanted to think about what my version of the song was, how can I make it personal, and that's what I loved about it, how personal it was."

Comment emeli sande wrote this song about bringing back the real meaning and truth behind music and lyrics rather than for "the moment" songs that are in the charts these days. Its about bringing back the messages that songs in the 60's and 70's had where they really thought about their lyrics and where there was a real awareness of the ...
