The Magician And The Cardsharp

Johnson assembles a well-researched history of the life of Allen Kennedy (the cardsharp) and Dai Vernon (the magician). It's ostensibly the story of Vernon's quest to find a great card move (all for the sake of seeing and learning it), but it serves as a detailed history of the life and times of these two men, both with peculiar vocations.

The Magician and the Cardsharp: The Search for America's Greatest Sleight-of-Hand Artist by Karl Johnson. Dai Vernon, The Professor, was the greatest card magician of the 20th century, maybe of all time. David Verner—his name was botched by a Welsh reporter early on and the approximation stuck—was born in Ottawa in 1894 and used to joke that he wasted the first six years of his life before he came to magic.
