Vygotsky and Education: Instructional Implications and ...

More than any other theorist, the Soviet psychologist L.S. Vygotsky (1896-1934) viewed education as central to cognitive development. Vygotsky set out to develop a general approach to

Vygotsky and Education edited by Luis C. Moll

Although no thought was given to Vygotsky's theories during this program development, it is possible to interpret features of RR in Vygotskian terms. At first it seemed to
